

The I.L. Peretz Secular Jewish Community presents:

Jorge Klainman

“Six actual miracles occurred, and saved my life.
The seventh was my being able to write the story.”

Jorge I. Klainman

In his recent book, Mr. Klainman, who lost his family in the Holocaust, vividly depicts the horror of life, and death, in a series of Nazi camps. Yet his story is also an inspiring tribute to the resiliency of the human spirit. In many ways, it epitomizes the triumph of the Jewish people who-despite the Holocaust-have prevailed. "Many people intervened, at enormous risk to themselves, so that I could write this testimony. To me, it means that, despite everything, I have to continue believing in people, and not all is lost."

Friday, October 27, 2006

8:00 p.m.

Free Admission For Members

Rutgers Labor Education Center
Ryders Lane, New Brunswick (off Route 1)
For further information: (732) 545-9691 or info@ilperetz.org